sold at auction for taxes.
Last Monday there arrived ten cars, containing 149 cavalry horses for the Sixth Cavalry, in charge of Lieut.
Scott.
One of the Southern Pacific Rail-and will be erected at Casa Grande.

Eleven car-loads of rails arrived the Autumn.

Jose Pacheco has been arrested for selling liquor to Indians.
Gilmer & Sanbury are taking their stage houses from Dos Palms to Maricopa. They make three carloads.
More machinery came yesterday for the Central Arizona Mining Company, some 42,285 pounds; two boilers, one steam drum and one mud drum amongst it.
The steamer Mohave arrived from up river on the 13th, bringing 410 sacks of ore from the Red Cloud mine, Silver District, weighing 48,000 pounds. There also came 470 sacks ore from Castle Dome, weighing 41,065

First Tombstone Bullion—Eight Bars—$18,744.50.
Mr. E. L. Scheffelen and Judge Bidwell came in last Tuesday with the first shipment of Tombstone bullion, as per following letter and memoranda:
TOMBSTONE M. & M. COMPANY,
PIMA COUNTY, June 16, 1879.
Messrs. Safford, Hudson & Co., Tuc-son, Gentlemen: I forward to you this day for shipment to Gov. Safford, Philadelphia, Pa., eight bars of bullion, encased value eighteen thousand, seven hundred forty-four and 58-100 dollars, as per memoranda enclosed. Yours truly,
RICHARD GIRD, Supt.
Bar No. 1 weighs 1843.38 ounces, is 871 fine and is worth $2075.83; No. 2, 1792.35, 869, $2013.88; No. 3, 2132.20, 870, $2398.29; No. 4, 2179.46, 855, $2409.29; No. 5, 2349.21, 859, $2609.03;
No. 6, 2260.81, 851, $2487.56; No. 7, 2130.96, 823, $2367.55; No. 8, 2230.50, 861, $2483.05; total, $18,744.50.
This bullion attracted crowds to see it at Safford, Hudson & Co's Bank today. It is the actual proof of what we have been told would come along as soon as the machinery were put in motion, and it must be remembered that no high grade ore has yet been milled.

New Mining District.
Evergreen is the name of a new mining district about twenty miles northwest of Tucson and but four or five miles south of the line of the railway. It embraces the low mountains about Point of Mountain and to the westward. There is no limit to the ore in the district, and its nearness to the railway must make it valuable, even if not of high grade. Not much in the way of development has yet been done, but some work has been going on for a couple of months past with an encouraging showing. Judge J. Neugass, John W. Davis and some others have been expending money and labor out there, and they are quite content with the prospects, and feel sure that on the completion of the railway no trouble will be found in getting men of means to aid in operating the mines.

The Next Secretary of War.
WASHINGTON, June 9.—It is stated on what seems to be sufficient authority, that the President has tendered to Gen. Chas. F. Manderson, of Nebraska, the position of Secretary of War, to succeed Judge McCrary. Gen. Manderson was born and educated in Philadelphia, and is a lawyer by profession, but entered the army as Lieutenant at the outbreak of the Rebellion.
He rapidly rose through successive grades to the Colonelcy. He was twice severely wounded, and was mustered out at the close of the war, as Brevet Brigadier General. Most of his military service was with the army of the Cumberland. At the close of the war he removed to Omaha, where he has since been actively engaged in the practice of his profession.

San Pedro Station.
The Chicago Tribune has lately and for years been zealous in encouraging settlement and development of the Territories, and urged people to get out of the overcrowded cities and "go West." In this course it was right, and did the best thing for the industrious poor of the cities and also the best for the cities, for nothing can be more distressing to well-to-do city people than to have a surplus of poor people on hand with nothing for them to do and necessarily calling for alms.
But the Tribune has changed its policy. It now deplores the settlement of the Territories. Here is an extract of one of its late walls on the subject:
Every person added to the population of Wyoming is taken from some old community where he might live in greater ease and comfort. Every dollar expended in developing the resources of Arizona is withdrawn from some enterprise in another and better part of the country. All our far Western settlements have been built up at the expense of settlements in the far East, and little has been gained by the transfer of men and capital.
Such a drive needs no refutation.
Had this absurd argument prevailed in early times, Chicago would have had no existence. It is narrow, selfish and crazy, and is only referred to here to show our people one of the curious freaks of able (?) journalism.

Under Better Influences.
It seems a number of Prescott people have lately settled in Phoenix and Salt River Valley, and are trying to do better there, and according to some of the Phoenix people's statements, the Prescott Miner has been raking up old records of these former Prescott-ites. A Phoenix correspondent of the Herald devotes a column and a half to the subject, and very properly says:
Whatever the character of men may have been while residing in Prescott and its vicinity, it is not kind, to say the least, for the people of Prescott or the Prescott papers, when they have settled in a neighboring town and under the genial influence of its climate and the general prosperity around them have become not only thriving and prosperous, but moral and upright men, to talk in such an unkind way about them, not only reminding them of what they would probably like to forget, but as it were warning their neighbors against them by telling what they were at one time in their lives, under certain demoralizing influences. When men have been able to see the error of their ways and have determined, in a new country, with new associates and under more benign influences to lead a better life, it is unchristian and cruel to twist them with their former evil associations.

Bananas in Arizona.
Months ago, Rev. H. H. Messenger, of Orange, Cal., corresponded with residents of Arizona as to the practicability of growing bananas out here.
The result of the correspondence must have been favorable for a late number of the Los Angeles Commercial says the gentleman named "is introducing the culture of the banana into Arizona."
The climates of the Colorado about Yuma, the lower Gila and Salt River valleys are likely suited to the growing of such fruit. Arizona valleys ought to be made produce many choice fruits. The soil is good and climate mild.

OUR telegraphic correspondent at San Diego sent us some news today which we received by the San Francisco Bulletin yesterday, and this tardiness happens almost every day.
Some of the news he sent us this forenoon was in type here before received by telegraph. This proves that at times the railway and stage are more rapid means of communication between Tucson and San Francisco than the telegraph. A little more promptness would be more satisfactory.

Mike Huff Shot.
(Special to THE CITIZEN.)
Phoenix, June 14.—Mike Huff was shot by John Ellis this morning, three miles west of here. The difficulty occurred about the rights of water on their respective ranches. Huff was shot in the neck by a shot-gun. The wound is considered dangerous.

THE Chicago Railway Review says of the Sonora Railway: "The Massachusetts parties who are principal owners in the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, have received permission from the railroad commission to take out a charter under the name of "The Sonora Company," for building a road in Mexico. A special act has been passed by the Massachusetts Legislature, permitting such corporations.

THE Sentinel puts our clerical friend Todhunter through a course of sprouts —cactus ones as it were. Bro. T. may console himself with the growing belief that Moses made "mistakes" as well as himself.

THE military post at Prescott and the post near Prescott now known as Fort Whipple, will hereafter be considered as one establishment and known as Whipple Barracks.

Salt River Items.

Condensed from the Herald of the 14th: Mesa City, located on the Florence road, nine miles from Hayden's Ferry, is the principal place and contains about twenty-five families. There is considerable fruit being planted here.
One of the greatest drawbacks to this valley is the attempt to cultivate large areas.
The mail service between Phoenix and Prescott will be increased to seven times per week on and after the 16th inst.
A 100-stamp mill will shortly be constructed at the Vulture mine, and with the forty-stamp mill that is now nearly completed at Seymour must greatly add to the wealth of Wickenburg and vicinity.
The stage that left Prescott on the 11th was stopped by highwaymen, three miles out. There was no money in the express box.
The Tiger mill is pounding on rich ore, as is also the Tip Top. Business at the camp is good and lively.
From the Expositor of the 13th: Phoenix has fifteen stores where they sell general merchandise and only fifteen saloons.
The bottom is likely to fall out of the grand hotel enterprise. Cause, too much jaw development.
There is not one-fourth of the hay made in this valley that will be required for next winter's demand.
What is buoyant. Indians are selling it at $1.25 to $1.50; buyers seeking contracts at $1.50, and for choice lots $1.75.
A Presbyterian church was to be organized yesterday.
Capt. Hancock's thrasher run out 424,000 pounds barley in five days last week.
Jack Hill left for Tucson on Sunday last to erect some brick buildings there.
Judge Silent departed for Prescott yesterday.
Florence dispatches to the Herald say work commences next week on the Old Hat mine, Santa Catalina mountains, and that C. C. Hastings has purchased the Surprise gold mine on Queen Creek.
A Maricopa dispatch says the quarter-master's building there is to be 25x 100 feet and is expected to be ready for occupation by July 1.

More Crazy Than Selfish.

determined, in a new country, with
their former evil associations.

Bananas in Arizona.
Months ago, Rev. H. H. Messenger,
of Orange, Cal., corresponded with
cability of growing bananas out here.
the culture of the banana into Arizona."
The climates of the Colorado about
ing of such fruit. Arizona valleys
mild.

San Diego sent us some news today
cisco Bulletin yesterday, and this
tardiness happens almost every day.
Some of the news he sent us this fore-
by telegraph. This proves that at
the telegraph. A little more promptness would be more satisfactory.

Mike Huff Shot.
shot by John Ellis this morning, three
miles west of here. The difficulty oc-
wound is considered dangerous.

nora Company," for building a road
ture, permitting such corporations.

More Crazy Than Selfish.

The Chicago Tribune has lately and
Territories, and urged people to get
out of the overcrowded cities and "go West." In this course it was right,
best for the cities, for nothing can be
more distressing to well-to-do city peo-
to do and necessarily calling for alms.
But the Tribune has changed its policy. It now deplores the settlement of the Territories. Here is an extract of
one of its late walls on the subject:
Every person added to the population of Wyoming is taken from some
sources of Arizona is withdrawn from
transfer of men and capital.
Such a drive needs no refutation.
to show our people one of the curious
freaks of able (?) journalism.

It seems a number of Prescott people have lately settled in Phoenix and
of the Phoenix people's statements, the
old records of these former Prescott-
ites. A Phoenix correspondent of the Herald devotes a column and a half to
Whatever the character of men may
the least, for the people of Prescott or
and the general prosperity around
determined, in a new country, with
their former evil associations.
